Our family is growing...

The railway magazines Schweizer Eisenbahn-Revue, Eisenbahn Österreich and Eisenbahn-Revue International are highly appreciated by our German-speaking readers.

As Switzerland and Germany belong to the leading countries in the world regarding public rail transport, there is always a lot of news to be reported on, for instance: well-developed infrastructures, optimized systems ranging from long-distance traffic and multi-system high-speed trains down to urban transport with "S-Bahn" and trams, economic, cheap trainsets for branch lines, high-capacity vehicles for urban agglomerations, and last but not least, interval timetables conforming to market trends.

We are sure that besides the worldwide news, many of these local reports in German – with a strong focus on Switzerland – will be of interest to non-German-speaking readers as well.

Therefore we have crossed the language barrier and present our magazine in an English edition for readers everywhere.
