And finally...

Dave Stowell took this shot of a police notice displayed in the car park reserved for coaches and buses at the west end of Interlaken West Station.

The text reads: "If you are not a bus driver and yet you still park here then suddenly lunch will cost you Fr. 238.50, including coffee". Those who know the spot will realise that the Migros supermarket with its excellent restaurant can be found on the other side of the road." ☞

Where's Heidi?

Answer. With this view you'd be outside Interlaken Ost station, looking in the infinity pool. And if you turn 180 degrees you'd be looking at the Coop which has a restaurant that is convenient for the station and recommended. And unusually is open on Sundays. ☞

Hotel Restaurant Grischuna Filisur
