Pleasure and comfort, even in simple things

We would not write here of enchanting dress fabrics, of skilful embroideries or of fine damasks for table linen or bedspreads, but rather of the linen cupboard... Is there not a certain joy to be felt on looking at piles of sponge-towellings with their delicate tones, and which can be put to such multiple uses?

Do not the gay colours of beach towels and bath robes brighten summer beaches? And at home, does not the daily use of soft-textured face-squares, cosy bath mats and ample gowns with their curly, wrinkled surfaces, contribute to good temper?

The ornamental designs on these fabrics are produced by Jacquard looms carefully controlled by watchful eyes and skilful hands. The design on the chart gradually grows into those products now so commonly used in daily life, that we want them to be not only practical, but, even more, pleasing and comfort-giving.

La Casa Winzeler, Ott & Cía S.A., Weinfelden, exhibe hermosos manteles estampados para verandas y jardines, asimismo para el mueblaje de casa. El motivo heráldico u ornamental se presta admirablemente para las diferentes combinaciones del mueblaje. Las telas empleadas son de semihilo y lana-ramio.
