Each year the Australian Wool Bureau organizes a big competition in which special awards are made for the best entry in each specific section of the various fields of fashion.

Winning entries are judged on design, originality, workmanship and finish, and must of course be fashioned from wool or woollen fabrics.

After winning the first prize awarded in the evening wear section in 1955, Charlotte Fifth Avenue Gowns of Melbourne again won first prize in the same category in 1956. We are pleased to be able to reproduce here this year's prizewinning model. It is a formal evening gown of featherweight tissue georgette wool in a delicate shade of misty lilac pink.

A striking feature of this dress was that the only trimming consisted of white wool guipure lace embroidery from St. Gall. This wide band of beautiful white lace circled the off-the-shoulder neckline and covered the side seams of the dress from armhole to hem.

The gown was designed by Mrs. Charlotte Blau, who began her dress designing career in Europe, then later came to Australia to start up with her husband her own business, Charlotte Fifth Avenue Gowns. We should like to congratulate her here, not only on the great distinction she obtained for the second year in succession, but also for having used with such good taste a lovely St. Gall guipure, that we are happy to see sharing the honours in this success.
