ANOTHER SWISS BROADCASTING STATION.

For the completion of the "regional" broadcasting scheme for Switzerland the Swiss Administration of Telegraphs and Telephones has ordered a new Marconi transmitting station to be erected in the Italian part of Switzerland.

The regional transmitters for German Switzerland and French Switzerland are already in operation at Beromünster and Sottens respectively.

The new station, which is to be erected on Monte Ceneri, is expected to be in operation by the end of this year. It will have an energy of fifteen kilowatts unmodulated power in the aerial.

SPEEDING-UP IN SWITZERLAND.

The Swiss air traffic company known as Swissair, which was formed as the result of the amalgamation of the two firms Ad Astra Aero and Balair and is the most important civil air transport company in Switzerland, has ordered two Lockheed Orion four-passenger high-speed transport monoplanes, each with a 525 h.p. Wright Cyclone engine, to be placed on their routes this summer. They will be used on the Zurich-Vienna route and to expedite the trans-Atlantic mails between Cherbourg and Basle and other interior points of Europe.

The Lockheed Orion is a low-wing cabin monoplane with a retractable undercarriage. With the Cyclone engine it has a top-speed of 225 m.p.h. and a cruising speed of 185 m.p.h. They will be the fastest commercial machines in regular operation in Europe this year.

Swissair has hitherto used exclusively Fokker F.VII-3m. monoplanes with three Wright Whirlwind engines each, and with these machines has operated extensive routes between various points within Switzerland and to a number of important centres of Europe, the latter in conjunction with the Deutsche Luft-Hansa, Air Union, C.I.D.N.A. and the Czechoslovak Air Traffic company.

FOOTBALL.

Switzerland 3 France 3
in Bern, 20th March, 1932.

At last that monotonous sequence of defeats has ended and we may congratulate our forward-line, on having found again their shooting boots, particularly our friend Trello, who did the hat-trick for good old Switzerland.

The weather gods were propitious, and a crowd of 23,000 spectators proved what interest this match provoked. The French Ambassador and Federal Councillors Minger and Musy honoured the two international sides by their presence. Our team lined up as announced in our last issue, except that the young Frigerio (Lugano), who played in his first international in Leipzig, was again called upon due to Schärer (Bern) having to stand down on account of injury. The first goal fell to France in the 14th minute, and it was left to the brothers Abegglen to equalise nine minutes later, Xam giving a beautiful pass to Trello who scored. Ten minutes later Frigerio was fouled and from the free-kick Trello got his second goal. Half time 2 : 1.

In the second half, Switzerland had rather more of the game, when in the 25th minute the French inside left equalised and barely one minute later the left-winger got France the lead, 2 : 3. Defeat once more stared into our faces; but no, in the last minute Trello completed his hat-trick and thus pulled the match out of the fire.

The defence acquitted themselves as well as ever. In the forward line the re-introduction of Xam at inside-left and Tschirren (Lausanne Sports) at outside right led to greater cohesion. Frigerio in the centre undoubtedly has the making of a first-class international in him; at present he is still lacking in experience, but he is only 19 and in a year or so should be just our man. Jaeck (Basel) at outside-left disappointed many.

NATIONAL LEAGUE.

Urania 2 Young Fellows 3
Old Boys 0 Aarau 0
Blue Stars 2 Young Boys 0

In Groupe 1, Young Fellows are consolidating their position as runners-up. The other two matches leave the league-table of Groupe 2 unaltered. Old Boys' position is very critical. They are third from last with 11 points from 14 games, and Servette only just below them with 9 points, and Etoile Ch.-de-F. with 8 points, from 12 games. As the remaining matches of Old Boys are against Grasshoppers at home and Etoile Ch.-de-F. away, they must win them to escape relegation. But, can they?

FIRST LEAGUE.

Stade Lausanne 0 Grenchen 1
Olten 3 Fribourg 1
Winterthur 3 Chasso 1

Groupe 1. Stade and Fribourg have seriously jeopardized their chances of getting away from the last 3 places, but Grenchen goes from 4th to second, and Olten from 5th to third. In Groupe 2, I am pleased to see the wooden spoonists pulling themselves together. There is just a chance for Winterthur to escape. It would be most regrettable if that old and famous club should fall to League II.

The following international games were played on the 20th inst.,

In Vienna:

Austria 2 Italy 1

Austria thereby secure the "Europa Cup."

In Prague:

Czecho-Slovakia 1 Hungary 3

In Antwerp:

Belgium 1 Holland 4

NOTES AND GLEANINGS.

By KYBURG.

EASTER 1932.

In countless churches and other religious assembly places, all over the Christian world, countless, fervid voices will, next Sunday, Easter Sunday, testify to the relief which, once again, fills our hearts when we remember the resurrection of our Lord.

Easter, the blessed festival of Spring is once again with us. Gone is the winter, gone are the cold blasts of winter's storms, gone are the long, dreary nights, gone the dark chilly mornings and before us opens up a period of bright, sunny, warm days, scented evenings and nights, in short, we are about to live again.

This resurrection, this miracle of Easter fills us every year with new wonder, fresh awe and, although we can explain the phenomenon quite easily and even scientifically, deep down in our hearts we feel that there is indeed something miraculous involved in this Easter or resurrection, something which touches not only our physical well-being, but makes our pulse beat faster, just because of its mysteriousness.

Easter renews our faith. It is far easier to believe in the goodness of mankind when life is sunny, than it is during the dark, unhealthy days of winter. It is far easier to have faith in the ultimate destination of mankind when indulging in one's favourite philosophical thoughts while ambling leisurely beneath the luscious green of trees in the proud panoply of their first foliage, than when the same thoughts assail us while we are struggling hard, backs bent, eyes smarting with the driven rain, ears aching with the fury of unwonted wind-pressure, across the barren heath or under leafless storm-twisted trees. In other words, creature comfort or otherwise determines to some extent our outlook on life, our philosophy, unless, indeed, we are ascetics.

In these times of general depression it must make us think sometimes when we reflect that even now, after 1932 years since the time of the first Easter, Christian humanity has made but little advance towards fulfilling the commands of the founder of our religion. Take that root-exhortation "As ye would that men should do to you, do ye also to them likewise."

It is a command which might well be taken as the basis of Christian, and probably also of several other religions.

As far as I can discern, a small beginning towards its fulfilment has been made, inasmuch as we are being taught when young to act accordingly. We learn later in life, that it is a maxim "which pays" and, therefore, a good maxim to follow in business. We have learnt too to base our political institutions on the same command, but only as far as each country is concerned. We have not yet learnt to adopt this command in our dealings with our foreign brethren, whom, because we still consider them to be foreign, we will not admit into our charmed circle. We still think that in dealing with foreigners, we must adopt other methods. Why? Nobody seems to be able to explain satisfactorily, and the results achieved are hardly such as to denote wisdom on the part of those who persist in believing that foreigners must be dealt with otherwise than what is considered and proved by experience, right, fit and proper when dealing with our own folk.

And so, because the World at large still persists in its refusal to acknowledge the common brotherhood of mankind, the world at large has to pass through untold miseries, so that it may learn the lesson.

The "economic blizzard" of which we hear so much nowadays, is, of course, directly attributable to the stupid disunion which separates peoples economically and politically.

The consequent miseries suffered in all countries at the present time, cannot be explained away by anything else.

And yet, have we not learnt at school that Union Makes for Strength? United we stand, disunited we fall, etc.

We know what is wrong, but we cannot alter it, or then only very slowly, one tiny little step forward at the time, for fear that we stumble. Would it not be a thousand times better to stumble on the way to progress and sanity, than to stand erect and still in the damp, unwholesome, loathsome spot in which humanity has stood for thousands of years and in which the air has almost given out and where suffocation seems the natural outcome of all the horrible mess.
