the fifth centre forward in six games! Spiller was preferred to Hintermann, the rest as usual.

Switzerland won the toss and after 15 minutes Trello scored our first point. Nothing daunted the Czechs press without results, and five minutes later Xam converts a centre of Jaek's; 2:0. Our opponents change the position of right half to centre half but the Reds are now well on top. In the 26th minute Minelli gives away a penalty for hands (this seems to become a habit with our right back). Madelon shoots over the bar! A lucky let-off. Switzerland more and more gets the upper hand, and in the 40th minute Trello scores again. "Unbeschreiblicher Jubel"!! Half-time. What will happen now?

Did not our team lead 3:1 at half-time last summer in Prague and then lose 3:7? But the Czecho-Slovakian team to-day is rather disappointing. Especially the halves cannot get a grip on their opponents. Yet, in the second half our Reds were to have a more difficult time, although 3 minutes after the restart Trello is fouled, Imhof places the ball in the goal mouth and there is Xam to tap it through 4:0. Minelli almost sends a centre into his own goal and then we are very much on the defensive. The ball is almost all the time in our half, Jaek alone in front, the other ten defending, defending. And in the 64th minute Bradac dribbles through, Sèchehaye advances and the ball is lifted over his head into the empty goal: 4:1. The Czechs continue to have the better of the exchanges, but cannot score again. Ten minutes before the end Tschirren centres to Billeter who shoots in falling to score again for Switzerland: 5:1. Well done!

Whether this success is due to the two trial games our national eleven played in preparation, it would be hard to say. But such a success against a national team of Czecho-Slovakia, who in all their history have never before had to pocket such a heavy defeat, will do us a lot of good and restore confidence. This game was for the Svehla or Europa-Cup and we give here the respective table:

	P.	W.	D.	L.	F.	A.	Pts.
Austria	6	3	2	1	15	7	8
Italy	6	3	2	1	12	8	8
Hungary	5	1	3	1	13	10	5
Czecho-Slovakia	5	1	2	2	14	15	4
Switzerland	6	1	1	4	12	26	3

Just think what that table looked like before last Sunday's match! Let us hope we have now turned the corner.

NATIONAL LEAGUE.

Nordstern2	Zurich1
Urania0	Bern3
Chaux-de-Fonds2	Basel6
Aarau2	Blue Stars1

Nothing but surprises! Zurich lose their last league game and are groupe-champions with 26 points from 13 wins and 3 losses. Lowly Bern is making a desperate effort to escape relegation; to win in Geneva is no easy matter. Basel can still be overtaken by Bern. Aarau however, have made their position safe in the second groupe.

FIRST LEAGUE.

Stade Lausanne3	Racing Lausanne1
Monthey1	Olten2
Brühl3	Locarno0
Chiasso1	Concordia2
Wohlen1	Black Stars2

Stade Lausanne's win will hardly be of any avail. Solothurn would have to lose their last two matches and Stade win their last game in Olten, and then they would only tie with a much worse goal average. The interest is entirely centred on Groupe 2 where Brühl have further advanced their promotion chances by eliminating one of their rivals, Locarno. There remains Concordia to be accounted for, who now have 22 points with one more game to play. That is in St. Gall against Brühl, who have three more games to settle and with 21 points already safe in their locker, look good for promotion and participation in the finals for the Swiss Championship. Keep it up, Boys! St. Gall must have a National League Club, even if it be, as far as I am concerned, the wrong one. The relegation problem is still unsolved, but Chiasso appears to be doomed. Wohlen, losing at home to Black Stars are in serious danger and Winterthur, Black Stars or Luzern?

Frühling.

Drei Tage milder Regen,
Dem Boden förderlich,
Heut Sonnenstrahlensegen
Zum ersten Spatenstich.
Es ruft zu neuem Leben
Die holde Frühlingszeit,
Zu neuem, regen Streben,
Frischer Werktätigkeit.
Nach langer Winterstarre
Hebt freudig sich die Brust,
Die Hand greift zur Gitarre,
Herz singt voll Liebeslust.
