THE SAVOY FREE ZONES.

The negotiations between France and Switzer-land about the Free Zones in Savoy which have been going on at Montreux have been concluded. An agreement has been reached on a number of disputed points, but a few remain unsettled. In consequence the international arbitrators ap-pointed by the International Court of Justice at

The Hague, with the approval of the French and Swiss Governments, will have to decide, and their arbitral award is likely to be published within 10 days. These arbitrators are Sir John Baldwin (Great Britain), M. (Inden (Sweden) ,and Señor Lopez Olivan (Spain).

SWISS EMBROIDERY INDUSTRY DECLINES. The tenth annual report just issued by the Embroidery Trust Organization St. Gallen for the Embroidery Trust Organization St. Gallen for the past year shows only too well the serious state of the Swiss embroidery industry. Exports de-clined month by month, so that the total exports for 1932 were no more that 875,000 kilogs. valued at about 24,000,000 frs. These figures are 578,000 kilogs. and 28,500,000 frs. (i.e., 40 per cent. and 54 per cent.) less than those for 1931, which itself was a bad year. Despite the fact that the equip-ment of machines has for years been systematically scaled down the degree of employment of those remaining did not on the average exceed 30 per cent., and at times was less than 15 per cent. (At current rate of exchange one Swiss franc = 1s. 2d.).

100TH ANNIVERSARY OF THE SWISS OFFICERS ASSOCIATION.

The 100th Anniversary of the Swiss Officers Association took place at Zurich on Sunday last; Association took place at Žurich on Sunday last; over 4,200 officers gave themselves rendez-vous. The Banquet was held at the Tonhalle, and amongst the official gnests were: M. Schulthess, President of the Swiss Confederation, Federal Councillors Motta and Minger, Army-Corps Commanders Bridler, Roost, Guisan, Wille and Biberstein, as well as all the Divisional Com-anders. Amongst former Division Commanders were present Colonels Frey, Grosselin, Dormann, Pfyffer and Sonderegger. The military attaché's of the following countries were also amongst the guests: France, Germany, Italy and Austria, as well as delegations from various cantons. well as delegations from various cantons.

M. Minger, head of the Federal Military M. Minger, head of the Federal Military Dept., was the official speaker, he welcomed the Assembly in the name of the Swiss Government, and gave a short resumé of the activity of the Swiss Officers Association. He said, amongst other things, "We Swiss belong to a country which ardently desires peace, and abhorrs war, we have therefore also supported the aims of the disarnament Conference, unfortunately this Con-ference is passing through a severe crisis, and we do not know what is going to happen, we must therefore be prepared to encounter all eventu-alities, and it is our duty to be prepared against any aggressor of whatever nationality he may be." any aggression of whatever nationality he may be." Colonel Bircher, Central President of the Swiss Offiers Association then addressed the Assembly. M. Schulthess, President of the Swiss Confederation also addressed the gathering.

THE NEW "WAFFENCHEF" OF THE INFANTRY.

It is runnoured that the new "Waffenchef" of the Infantry will be Colonel Borel, at present commandant of the "Zentralschulen."

FEDERAL SINGING COMPETITION

The date for the Swiss Federal Singing Competition has been fixed for the 29th of June—9th of July 1935, and will take place at Basle.

LOCAL. ZURICH.

The directors of the "Schweizerische Bankge-sellschaft " have appointed Messrs Emile Baechi and Fritz Zehnder, hitherto Managers of the seat at Zurich, members of the "General Direktion." *

The Administration of the Banque Fédérale, S.A. (Eidgenössische Bank, A.G.) propose at a special meeting of shareholders, which will take place on December 14th, a reduction of the share capital from 100 million to 75 million francs. The reduction is to be effected by the purchase and cancellation of shares; which have already been bought in the open market, so that there is no question of any loss. The reduction is being made because a general shrinkage of banking business has rendered a part of the capital super-fluous. (The "Basler Handelsbank" and the "Schweizerische Bankgesellschaft" have also re-duced their share capital owing to the same reason) reason)

BERNE.

The discovery of the tusk of a huge pre-historic animal near Berne has aroused great interest in Swiss scientific circles.

Workmen digging in a gravel pit at Herzogen buchsee came across the tusk buried under six feet of earth. It measures 9 feet 9 inches in length and 22 inches in circumference.

Experts from the Berne Natural History Museum were at onec summoned and took charge of the specimen.

BASLE.

Dr. Hermann Christ-Socin, the doyen of the Basle citizens, who would have celebrated on the light of next month his 100th birthday anniver-sary, died last Friday at Riehen. Dr. Christ occupied until 1868 the post of a clerk to the court, afterwards he practised as an advocate until he reached the age of 90; as a hobby he took up botany, on which subject he wrote various books which have also became well-known out-side the frontiers of Switzerland.

In 1908 he founded together with M. René Claparède, of Geneva, the "Ligue Suisse pour la protection des indigènes de l'Etat du Congo." In Dr. H. Christ, the town of Basle loses one of its most distinguished sons.

GENEVA.

Great excitement has been caused throughout the canton of Geneva by the result of the elections to the Conseil d'Etat, the executive body of the Canton of Geneva. Three weeks ago the elections for the Grand Conseil, the parliament of the can-ton, resulted in the socialists obtaining 44 seats out of 100.

On the Conseil d'Etat, virtually the cabinet of the canton, the socialists have now obtained four out of the seven seats.

The following have been elected :

Naine, socialist (19,841); Braillard, socialist (19,586); P. Lachenal, radical (19,573); Picot, Liberal-conservative (19,543); Nicole, socialist (19,306); Ehrler, socialist (19,241); Casai, radical (19.189).

Not elected were Desbaillets, radical (17,807); Berra, christian-socialist (17,620); J. E. Gross, Ordre politique nationale (272).

The socialist leader, Leon Nicole, who was The socialist leader, Leon Nicole, who was released from prison about 5 weeks ago, for having taken part in the November riots of hast year, will probably be Minister of Justice and Police in succession to M. Frederic Martin, who did not seek re-election. The socialists have not a clear majority in the Grand Council so that they will be unable to make legislative changes, without the support of some members of the other parties parties.

GLARUS.

From Mollis comes the news of the death of Dr. L. Streiff at the age of 83. Dr. Streiff had a large medical practice, and was a great philanthropist.

looms have been taken out of production.

At the find of October the equipment of power looms in the Swiss industry totalled only 1,340 (as compared with 5,116 in 1920), of which 600 were sealed. Of the balance of 740, only about 300 are operating fairly regularly, 150 are working only at wide intervals, and the remainder are idle.
