FETE SUISSE.

Le Comité de la Fête Suisse tient à remercier encore tous ceux qui ont participé à cette grande réunion patriotique. 1500 compatriotes avaient répondu à notre appel, ce qui est un record.

Pour l'an prochain, le Comité a déjà réservé la Galerie de Central Hall, ce qui permettra de recevoir quelques centaines de personnes en plus. Nous sommes certains que cette mesure sera appréciée et que nos compatriotes viendront plus nombreux encore que le 16 juin.

La somme de £45.12.5 a pu être versée au Fonds de Secours. Depuis 1926, c'est une somme totale de £300.— qui a pu être remise à notre Société de bienfaisance, permettant de soulager bien des misères.

En terminant, nous aimerions remercier tout spécialement les dames et demoiselles qui portaient des costumes nationaux. Puissent-elles trouver de nombreuses imitatrices l'an prochain!

SWISS SPORTS AND GARDEN PARTY
(1938).

Are you ready for next Saturday's Sports? There is yet still another week for training. Just keep yourself fit and fresh and alert as possible — it is not necessary to go beyond that point. Reserve your supreme effort for the great day.

Any form of training has two distinct aspects: the things you should do and those you should not do, the latter by far the more unpleasant to contemplate.

Fortunately, training for the Swiss Sports does not entail any particular expense. For instance, running is one of the best forms of exercise — and even those who live in town can find quiet byways, or else run to their office for a change. After all, there is no better practice for swiftness than the actual Veterans' Walk.

Coming now to the subject of what not to do — Well, I am no believer in fanciful dieting — eat whatever you fancy and all such food as agrees with you. Immediately before your sporting event you would, of course, not indulge in a heavy meal. Tea and all the stimulants you wish for can be had on the ground at popular prices.

Those who have no inclination for Sports will find ample attraction in the varied "Side Shows."

Music will be provided by the well-known military band of the Royal Engineers, masters in the art of good entertainment.

Do not let the weather hinder your attendance — there will be no drenching as there is vast accommodation in the Headquarters' Drill Halls.

Everything has been well thought-out — good sport and great fun for everyone. Make a date of next Saturday, bring along your children and friends, and help to make the Swiss Sports of 1938 one of the best gatherings of our Colony. Its success depends on your attendance.

P.S.

FAUSTINO NOTARI †.

Barely a month has gone by since the greatly lamented death of Ernesto Biucchi, and the "Unione Ticinese" — and with it the whole Ticinese Colony — are once again in mourning. One of its faithful members for close on half a century, Faustino Notari, passed away on the morning of June 27th. A new breach has thereby been made in the ranks of those veterans to whom the Society owes its foundation and early development.

With Faustino Notari the "Unione Ticinese" loses a wise and far-sighted counsellor, who had at all times shown a great interest in its affairs.

It was while holiday-making in his beloved "Valle del Sole" a few years ago that fate struck him a cruel blow from which, alas, he was not to recover. Neither science nor the devoted cares of his family prevailed against the malady which he, however, endured with peerless courage.

For many years until up to the time of his illness he had been in charge of the kitchen at "Pagani's," and indeed it may be said that his art contributed in no mean way to the renown of the House of Pagani. To his friends he was affectionately known as "chef."

Through these hospitable columns the "Unione Ticinese" send, in the name of the whole Swiss Colony, a message of deeply-felt sympathy to the bereaved family: to the widow, Mrs. Nellie Notari, and to the sons, Mr. Fred Notari and family, and Mr. Willie Notari, who was President of the Society for sixteen years.

O.G.

Our Editor has lost his father and we wish to express on behalf of all the readers and their large circle of personal friends in the Colony our sincere sympathy to Mr. and Mrs. F. Stauffer in their great sorrow.

Herr Eduard Stauffer died last Saturday, the 25th June, in Berne, at the age of 77; he was for thirty three years (1899 to 1932) Managing Director of the "Eidgenössische Bank A.G." in Berne. Though his responsible position claimed all his time he took, apart from his many directorships, an active part in the social and philanthropic life of our capital where his kindly advice and unassuming authority earned him great popularity. He belonged to the Schmiedenzunft of which for 16 years he was Vice-Obmann.

Many of the local institutions such as the Schweiz. Kaufmännischer Verein, Schweiz. Alpen Club, Berner Liedertafel singled him out for honorary membership.
