Mlle Browne, who is the daughter of Mr. A. Brauen, President of the Consistoire of the Swiss Church, is no stranger to the London Concert public, as she has, although residing in the United States, on several occasions appeared on the London Concert stage.

In addition this gifted artiste has given in the past her support at such events as the " Fête Suisse " and the City Swiss Club Banquet, where her exquisite singing has been much admired.

Mlle. Browne, will be assisted by David Martin (Violin) and Alan Richardson, Piano.

The programme is a very attractive one, including songs by Handel, Mozart (with violin obligato), Schumann, Ravel, Bloch, Fauré, Delius, Edward German, etc.

We warmly recommend the members of the Swiss Colony, to give their support to one of our compatriote's, who has on various occasions put her art at the disposal of the Colony, by attending in as great a number as possible at Wigmore Hall.
