FEDERAL.

NEW SWISS MINISTER FOR LONDON.

The Swiss Federal Government have decided to appoint M. Thurnheer, at present Swiss Minister in Tokyo, as Minister in London in succession to M. Paravicini, who is due to retire at the end of the year.

Dr. jur. Walter Thurnheer, who for the last five years represented Swiss interests in Japan, hails from Berneck (St. Gall); for a good many years he has been Swiss Consul General in Montreal (Canada) where he rendered valuable services to the Swiss export trade and enjoyed great popularity in the local colony.

NEW NORWEGIAN MINISTER IN BERNE.

M. Sassel, Norwegian Minister in Brussels, has been appointed Minister in Berne.

BETTER EMPLOYMENT FIGURES.

The statistics with reference to unemployment show a considerable improvement. The number of totally unemployed on the register fell from the end of May from 31,552 to 24,240 to end of June, which is the lowest figure for this period since the year 1931. In some of the Cantons and some of the trades practically no unemployment exists. A notable exception in this general improvement is the Watch Trade.

SWISS NAZIS SENTENCED.

Seven Swiss Nazis and one German were sentenced by the Federal Penal Court at Zurich to various periods of imprisonment on charges of espionage for Germany.

Johann Frei, who fled to Germany last September and has not returned was condemned by default to two years imprisonment.

Dr. Alfred Zander, organiser of the "League of Faithful Confederates of Nazi Belief," was condemned to 18 months' imprisonment. He has already served four months.

Alfred Nikles, Zander's secretary and chief bodyguard was sentenced to six months' imprisonment of which he has served already one month. Benno Schappi was given four months' imprisonment.

A German, Walter Oberdoerfer, who like Frei, fled from Switzerland and was not present at the trial, was sentenced by default to three months' imprisonment and forbidden by the Court to enter Switzerland for a period of five years. Three other defendants were given four months' imprisonment. The eighth man received two months' imprisonment.

The defendants were ordered to defray the costs, Frei and Zander each to pay one-fifth and the others to pay one-tenth.

They are given ten days in which to appeal to the Court of Cassation.

RENEWAL OF SWISS-HUNGARIAN TRADE PACT.

The Swiss Hungarian commercial negotiations in Berne have ended with the renewal of the trade agreement.

Last year Swiss exports to Hungary amounted to 10,400,000 pengoes and Hungarian imports totalled 16,700,000 pengoes.

The agreement provides for Switzerland to take more Hungarian wheat.

ITALIAN ASSURANCES TO SWITZERLAND.

The Foreign Minister, M. Motta, has reported to the Federal Council on the progress of negotiations over the Italian ban on foreigners in South Tyrol.

According to Swiss official quarters, Dr. Ruegger, Swiss Minister in Rome, has obtained an assurance from Signor Bastianni, Italian Under Secretary for Foreign Affairs, that Swiss citizens forced to leave Bolzano will receive an indemnity for property losses.

Another source of friction between Switzerland and Italy has been the imprisonment in Italy of five Swiss citizens.

Dr. Motta has announced that four of them had been freed. The fifth, Lt.-Col. Albisetti, is still in prison at Bologna. The Italian Government had stated that his case would soon be settled.

THE 14th JULY IN BERNE.

On the occasion of the 14th July celebrations, M. Alphand, French Ambassador, received the French colony and a number of Swiss persons. In his speech, the diplomat underlined the moral, military and financial rehabilitation of his country and evoked the traditional friendship uniting France and Switzerland.

BRITON KILLED BY TWO-HUNDRED FOOT FALL.

M. Robert Baxall, a Londoner, who was on holiday with his wife and daughter, was killed near the village of Fionnay near Martigny by a fall of 200 feet from some rocks.

TIGHT-ROPE WALKER KILLED.

A tight-rope walker, M. Aloys Buehlmann, from a travelling circus performing tricks above the River Lutschine, at Boenigen near Interlaken, fell into the river, which was swollen by Alpine snows. His body has not yet been found.

TWO KILLED ON MATTERHORN.

Two Swiss climbers, Walter Stengele, 29, and Ernst Stengele, 18, brothers, of Zurich, were killed on the Matterhorn.

At a height of 14,000ft. fog and sleet forced them to give up the ascent. They were lowering themselves down the almost vertical Moseley Platte when Ernst's hand slipped. He fell, dragging with him his brother.

Climbing parties, who, had been anxiously watching the two men's progress, saw them fall 1,000ft.

LOCAL.
