that you intend to be present, stating the number of your guests so as to facilitate the seating arrangements for the committee.

Members of the Legation have already indicated their intention of being present, and there is no doubt that we can look forward to one of the most interesting monthly meetings ever witnessed at the City Swiss Club.

Now, come on, Boys—make up your mind today, and ring up Clerkenwell 2321, and state the number of seats you require.

SWISS FEDERAL SHOOTING FESTIVAL, LUCERNE.

London, May, 1939.

To the Members of the Swiss Colony in London.

Dear Compatriots,

Early this year the Organisation Committee of the Federal Shooting Festival, which is taking place in Lucerne from June 16th—July 3rd, made an Appeal to all Swiss residing in Great Britain, to subscribe to a special Fund to defray the cost of the numerous prizes to be given to competitors, for the old traditional custom demands that the marksmen be rewarded for their skill, and encouraged for their endurance and the sacrifice made in our national interest.

In view of the patriotic aims of this Festival and in accordance with the tradition of the Colony, it was decided to appoint a special committee to deal with this Appeal, and thus the Swiss Societies and members of the Colony have been recently approached by the Swiss Legation, the Committee and through the medium of the Swiss Observer to give their support to the request made by the Festival authorities in Lucerne.

The London committee is delighted to report that the Appeal made to the Colony has been a great success, no less than £107.0.0 having been collected towards the presentation of prizes.

In addition, the London Swiss Rifle Team, which will be represented at this Festival by a very strong team (each member defraying his own expenses) will present a very fine silver trophy to Lucerne, and the Swiss Culinary Society is also presenting a handsome silver cup.

The result of this Appeal, therefore, can be considered a splendid one, and not only greatly honours the individual donors, but the whole Swiss Colony in Great Britain, and the Committee takes this opportunity to express its most sincere thanks to all those who have so generously answered their Appeal.

With patriotic greetings,

For the Organising Committee:

(Sig.) L. HILPERT, Chairman.
P. HILFIKER, Secretary.

HUMORISTISCHES.

Preiswert.

Neureich kommt zur Landesausstellung nach Zürich. Geht durch die Bahnhofstrasse und sieht an einem Restaurant ein Schild: Mittagessen 12 — 3 Uhr, Fr 2.20.— "Hier gehen wir rein!" sagt er zu seiner Frau. "Drei Stunden essen für zwei Franken zwanzig — das ist billig!"

Der Damenhut.

Am Sonntag bin ich mit meiner kleinen Tochter in der Stadt spaziert. Ihr Augenmerk richtete sich auf die verschiedenen Hütchen der Damen. Beim Nachhausegehen meinte sie zu mir: "Gäll Vati, hütt ka e Frau uf der Kopf näh was sie will, 's isch immer noh e Huet?"
