LETTER BOX.

W. B. — You will find the required addresses in the list published in another column. We note that you have returned to your old address and have entered your subscription as from this date.

MARIANN. — The Editor always looks forward to a well-deserved rest at his seaside " funkhole " over the week-end and feels sure that the success of the Church Bazaar on May 25th will not be marred by his absence. However, your personal note is published separately.

SWISS BENEVOLENT SOCIETY

The work of the Swiss Benevolent Society has increased so much of late that the Secretary requires a young assistant, paid or unpaid, prepared regularly to attend every day of the week either in the morning or the afternoon. The work needs sympathetic understanding of poor people's needs and after a period of training the situation offered may lead to a responsible permanent position.

Apply to 34, Fitzroy Square, W.1.

NOUVELLE SOCIETE HELVETIQUE.

The April meeting of the London Group of the N.S.H. was held last Friday the 19th, at Swiss House, Fitzroy Square. There was present a numerous and appreciative audience of members and their friends who had been attracted by the announcement of Mr. G. Keller's Causerie which followed the business portion of the meeting.

We are very fortunate in having been able to persuade our Journalist member Mr. Keller to give us an aperçu of the progress of the war and of the political situation in Europe every second month, alternated by a similar resumé by Dr. Egli.

Mr. Keller's instructive lecture was so well prepared; his logical conclusions were so impressive; his technical grasp of the situation gave him such a mastery of the subject and this, in turn, was presented to the audience in such excellent cohesion and lucidity, that the evening turned out to be one of very particular merit and enjoyment. Our best thanks are due to our lecturer, and we are all looking forward to hearing him again.
