EDITOR'S POST-BAG.

Mr. A. Stauffer, Editor,
"Swiss Observer",
23, Leonard Street,
London, E.C.2.

5th March, 1956.

Dear Mr. Stauffer,

At the Stafford Hotel, St. James' Court, the Neuchâtelois and their guests (gentlemen only) held an informal dinner and "Causerie" on the 1st March, in celebration of the entry of their Canton into the Swiss Confederation.

This is an annual event, and some 30 persons sat down to a typically "Neuchâtelois" meal, consisting of an excellent Gâteau au Fromage, delicious Fricandeaux, then a succulent sweet, followed by a luscious "Tourte aux couleurs du Canton". Coffee was then served and, thanks to our host, Monsieur Jordan, this lovely repast was enjoyed at a very reasonable cost.

The well known Monsieur Gebet was "Président d'Honneur" and, after a few words of welcome to the guests, our versatile compatriot, Jean Heimerding took charge of the entertainment and with very witty and appropriate remarks, challenged all present to say a few words. The company being very congenial and well known to one another, spent an interesting and hilarious evening and the very short speeches were appreciated and enjoyed by all.

As the Genevois and Vaudois hold similar reunions, would it not be possible for the Bernese to gather on an appropriate date in a similar way? I feel sure this would meet with great success and would be welcomed by all the Bernese and their friends, thereby strengthening the bonds which unite the Swiss abroad.

In the event of such a reunion taking place, I am already assured of the support of a good number of our compatriots. May we, therefore, through your columns have the views of your readers?

I remain, dear Mr. Stauffer,
Yours very truly,
René A. Marchand.

PERSONAL.

We deeply regret to announce the passing away on February 27th of Mr. L. Ph. E. Audemars. He was born on May 30th, 1876, in the Vallée de Joux, and came to this country in 1897, working in the watch trade.

The deceased lost his wife in 1933, and his son, Louis Fernand in May, 1954, both deaths were a hard blow to him. In his old age, he was devotedly cared for by his daughter.

Mr. Audemars was one of the oldest members of the Société de Secours Mutuels, having been admitted in 1901. In spite of his long residence in this country, he remained a good Swiss, often visiting his native land. His many friends will miss him greatly. He leaves a daughter and two sons to whom we extend our sincere sympathy.

THE COMMITTEE.

Maggi's Granulated Bouillon is the basis of all good soups—that's why it pays to keep a tin on hand. You just stir 4 tablespoonfuls into every gallon of boiling water—and voila!—a rich stock for only ½d. a plate. Every 5 lb. tin gives 960 platefuls. How's that for economy! 40 gallons of soup for 40/-.

Free Sample! For enough Maggi's Granulated Bouillon for nearly a gallon of soup stock—write to the address below.
