THE IMAGE OF SWITZERLAND IN THE WORLD

The theme of the next Assembly of the Swiss Abroad to be held in Solothurn from 27th to 29th August, is "The Image of Switzerland in the World". Questionnaires have been sent to societies and groups in order to encourage them to express their opinion. The questions are reproduced below, and readers are invited to send their comments to the representatives of the Swiss community in Great Britain on the Commission of the Swiss Abroad, viz. to Mrs. M. Meier, 53 Priory Road, London N.W.6 (for the South) and Dr. H. B. Knuchel, Cedarwood, The Springs, Bowdon, Cheshire (for the North) not later than 13th July. Answers may also be sent direct to the Auslandschweizersekretariat, Alpenstrasse 26, Berne. Opinions can be expressed in either German, French or English. It is not necessary to answer all the questions, and other relevant points not mentioned in the questionnaire are welcome.

1. What opinion of Switzerland exists in your hostess country?

- Is the general public interested in our country?
- In which way is this interest expressed? How far is Switzerland considered in the Press, on Radio and TV, and in films, etc.?
- How far are our political institutions known, our cultural achievements and the most notable performances by our compatriots of the present and the past?
- How far is Switzerland taken notice of at the various stages of schooling and in school books?
- What critical remarks have you heard about Switzerland and the Swiss? In what cases did you consider such remarks justified?
- Does the reputation in your hostess country correspond to the reality?

2. What do you think of the adaptability of the Swiss in your hostess country?

- What difficulties do the Swiss find when trying to fit in with the new surroundings? Are there difficulties of language, incompatibility as regards mentality, human relationship, daily habits, etc.?
- Do you believe that the Swiss try sufficiently hard to adapt themselves? How do you judge them in this connection as compared to other nationals?
- To what extent do they take part in the public life of the hostess country?
- Have they any influence on their environment?
- Have the inhabitants of the hostess country in general a friendly attitude towards Switzerland?

3. What is the Swiss contribution in your hostess country?

- towards economic development?
- in the field of science, art, technology, education and culture in general?
- towards extending social, welfare and charitable activities?
- Which Swiss undertaking and initiatives of all kinds deserve special mention in your opinion?

4. How do you judge the present relationship between Switzerland and your hostess country?

- Do you consider these relations satisfactory? Has Switzerland fostered and developed these relations sufficiently?

- In what fields are these relations not satisfactory? interstate relationship? cultural exchange? in the economic sector? communications and information services?
- Which are your suggestions and wishes regarding future development of relations between Switzerland and your hostess country?
- Do you believe that Switzerland shows enough interest in your community and in your institutions and your societies, as well as in your undertakings and your future? In other words: Does the image of Switzerland, the "presence" of Switzerland in your hostess country receive the desired support?

5. Are our compatriots abroad satisfied with the relationship with their homeland?

- In which field do you consider that such satisfaction exists?
- In what way do you miss relations or deem them unsatisfactory?
- Which are your sources of information regarding Switzerland? Are you interested in the political, cultural and sports events in our country?
- What impressions do you get on visits to Switzerland?
- Do you wish a more lively and intimate relationship with your homeland? In what way could this be realised in your opinion?

6. Have you any further suggestions regarding the general theme?
