SWISS MERCANTILE SOCIETY.

Monthly Meeting, held on April 11th at Union, Helvetia, Gerrard Place.

The meeting was declared open at 9 p.m. promptly by the President, 31 members being present.

There were 16 new members for election, and all were unanimously accepted. Three resignations were to hand, all having left England, and, their liabilities having been met, were accepted by the meeting.

The President read out various correspondence, received in connection with the Banquet and Ball, which took place on the Saturday previous. The Chairman also thanked the numerous members who helped to the success of the gathering, and in return a vote of thanks was given to him and also to the President of the Entertainment Committee, Mr. E. J. Veil.

A discussion was held in connection with the scheme of a Jubilee Collection, as published in the Society's journal in Switzerland, and after numerous questions, which were found of first-class importance before a ruling could be taken, it was decided to propose that the President, who expected to go to Switzerland within the next few days, should obtain further details of the matter on the spot, so that further discussion could be held at the next meeting.

The Chairman then referred to the still excessive proportion of old outstanding contributions and the heavy task of the Asst. Treasurers to get these funds in. He put it to the meeting whether or not it would be to advantage to offer a compensation for their labours, by fixing a remuneration on results obtained. Numerous views of members present were obtained, and it was finally agreed upon that it would be preferable to make arrangements to divide the duties of the Asst. Treasurers amongst four members instead of two only, thus reducing the work. The Chairman took this opportunity to inform the meeting that he would not be present at the next meeting, owing to his absence on the Continent, and therefore wished to inform the members that the Committee would tender their definite resignation, so that the needful steps could be taken and new arrangements made for the General Meeting, which would take place probably on the 2nd Wednesday in June. By doing so, he expressed his view that, although an "old hand" in the Society's matters, he felt that a younger member ought to have greater facilities than himself of keeping in close relation with the members of the Society, which, in the majority, is composed of younger men than himself.

After some discussion it was decided to hold the usual Monthly Meeting in May, in accordance with the majority of votes obtained on this issue. The meeting was closed at 11 o'clock.

UNION HELVETIA CLUB.

The Union Helvetia Swiss Hotel Employees' Society held its Delegate Meeting of the English branches on Sunday last, 14th April, chiefly to bring the Society's Rules into line with various decisions and changes, made at the General Delegate Meeting of October last at the Society's headquarters in Lucerne, and to elect the territorial Administrative Committee for a new term of office.

Mr. Emmenegger, President of the Administration, in opening the meeting, welcomed the delegates and expressed regret that several of the existing country branches had been unable to send a delegate. The following delegates, all of the London branch, were then elected to conduct the day's business:—President, F. H. Rohr; Vice-President, F. Maeder; Scrutators, A. Schmid and J. Sermier; Secretary, A. Haller (ex officio). Mr. Rohr, in resuming the Chair, thanked the delegates for this mark of confidence and expressed the hope that much good work would be done in the course of the day. He extended a very hearty welcome to Mr. Nanzer, member of the Administration, whom all were glad to see back in our midst after his long illness.

Mr. Emmenegger reported on the activities of the Administration since their election in 1920, enumerating the many difficulties with which they were faced, which had stood in the way of making much-hoped-for and desirable progress. The financial report, which was a credit to the Administration, was passed after a short series of questions had been satisfactorily answered.

The President, in passing a hearty vote of thanks to the Administration, expressed the hope that all the present members would again accept office for a further period, knowing how well they could rely on the support of the generality of the members. Mr. Emmenegger then tendered the formal resignation of the Administration, and it needed a good deal of persuasion on the part of the delegates to induce him to remain: happily, he gave in and was unanimously re-elected; similar sentences befell his colleagues, Messrs. Nanzer, Kipfer, Rossier and Affolter.

After this happy event the meeting adjourned for lunch, which did not fall short of expectations, our manager, Mr. Wyss, being fully aware of the importance of this part of the proceedings.

After 1½ hour's interval, business was proceeded with. The Rules were brought into line, and new suggestions were received and considered, the principal ones relating to attendance at meetings of the London branch and the finding of means to re-establish the "Branche Culinaire," which during the years 1916-20 proved such a strong link between the members of that branch.

At 6 o'clock the agenda was exhausted, and with hearty wishes for a pleasant and successful period of office to the Administration and thanks to the delegates for their thoroughness in the deliberations the meeting was closed. F. H. R.

Ostermäntig uf em Colley Hill.

Es het am Ostermäntig uf der Charing Cross Station so um die elfen um ne bsundere Lärm gäh. Nid nume wägem Bankholiday — es het da gwält-schlet, bäneret, zürcheret und g'ostschwyzteret und es ufgegrets Völkli isch von em Perron zum andere gsprunge. Allmählech het me dä Schwarm gseh verschwinde imene Zug uf der Plattform No. 1. Der Lärme isch aber nid verschwunde, im Gägeteil es het gsummet wie imene Byihuus. Uebermüetigi Glächer hei sech mit übersünnige Melodie gmischt — churzum, en ächt-eigenenössische Betrieb i guet-änglicher Umgäbung. D'Schwyzerchilche het nämlech ihren Uslug ghah und ihri Schäfli uf d'Weid geführt im Surrey. Mir sy alli gueter Luun gsy und dä Luun het amene-n-Ort ustmiesse. E Pfiff, no chly meh Lärme — und der Zug isch zu däm Rauchloch us, hallere Gägete zue. — Ja, häll isch es gsy da usse. Chuum es Wülkli am Himmel und grüenet het's a allne Egge. Wä hätt da no welle lose, wones z'Kingswood gheisse, het mer sölle de zsämelybe und laufe und nid blybe stah! — Ja, scho chly, we me ds Läge i allne Glidere gsprüet. Ds Laufe über e Common und dur di Walldi isch e Gnuß gsy. Mir sy uf däm Colley Hill gsi, mer hei nid gwüsst wie. Uf ds Mal isch men us de Bäume use cho und het i nes tiefs Tal aben und über ne prächtigi, sunnig Hügellandschaft us gseh. E Schwyzerherr isch so fründlech gsi und het is sys Guet zur Verfügung gestellt für üse Lunch im Freie. "Wo isch jitz da der Neueburgersee?" het mi eis gfragt und en andere: "Gseht men ächtvo da o ds Meer?" Ja, wyt het me gseh, wenn o nid grad bis i üses "Seeland"! Aber üsi Gedanke sy sicher so wyt gange, zu üser liebe Heimat. Das het me möge useghöre us dene paar Lieder, wo mer üsem Gastgäber zum Dank gsunge hei. Druf abe het's no ne fasch zwoistündige Marsch gäh de Prymeli, den Anemone und de Mandelblüet nah nach Headley. D'Wermi isch du schier stümmerlech und d'Bei derby schwär worde. Es het is aber glych alli greut, wo mer gäg di Sächse wieder i Zug hei mösse z'Tadworth. Fröhlech sy mer heigefahre und fröhlech und gueter Luune hei mer is trennt.

Chömmet Der o mit, ds nächst Mal? U. W.
